During this lecture we will describe the concept of Non Verbal Communication Device. We will also give a formal definition of NVCD and show the results of the use of these approaches with an aphasic subject, a mentally retarded adolescent and a boy with X-fragile syndrome. Videos showing the types of remediations used will also be shown. Finally, we will hint at possible further applications and researches with other types of subjects.